

Monuments lighting up for Blood Cancer

We would like to thank all these monuments in Australia and all around the world who are lighting up red to raise awareness of the growing impacts of blood cancer during Blood Cancer Awareness Month.

#ThisIsBloodCancer

Monument	Date
Townsville – Queensland Country Bank Stadium	1 September
Melbourne – Flinders Street Station	1 September
Adelaide – Adelaide Convention Centre	1 September
Adelaide – Adelaide Oval	1 September
Perth – Bell Tower	1 September
Perth – Crown Metropol	1 September
Cairns – Munro Martin Parklands	1 September
Perth – Council House & Trafalgar Bridge	2 September
Townsville – Townsville sign, Victoria Bridge, Wharton Street Lighthouse, George Roberts Bridge, Old Magistrates Court House, Central Park Boardwalk, Little Fletcher Bridge	8 & 9 September
Melbourne – Melbourne Town Hall	11 – 15 September
Brisbane – Brisbane City Hall & King George Square	15 September
Brisbane – Story Bridge, Reddacliff Place, Victoria Bridge	27 & 28 September
Melbourne – Federation Square	All September – subject to COVID 19 restrictions

International monuments lighting up on 1 st September
New Zealand – Auckland Sky Tower
United Kingdom – Cardiff Castle (Wales)
United Kingdom – Balmoral Hotel Clock Tower (Edinburgh)
United Kingdom – Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum (Glasgow)
United Kingdom – Leadenhall Building
United Kingdom – Kings Cross Tunnel (London)
United Kingdom – Wallace Monument (Stirling, Scotland)
United Kingdom – Television Centre (White City, London)
United Kingdom – Church St Building (Dumbarton)
United Kingdom – Belfast Castle (Northern Ireland)