

Accommodation support for people living with cancer

To help alleviate stress and financial strain on people travelling for treatment, the Leukaemia Foundation offers accommodation at no cost, subject to eligibility and availability*.

Eligibility

- ✓ Receiving treatment for cancer
- ✓ From a rural, regional or remote area, or requiring treatment far from home
- ✓ Has a carer over 18 years old
- ✓ Eligible for their state's patient assistance and travel scheme (PATS)

*Please be advised the Leukaemia Foundation may establish a minimum night stay requirement when demand is high.

The Bridgestone Australia
Blood Cancer Centre in Adelaide

Tilly and her family at the Clem Jones-Sunland Blood Cancer Centre in Brisbane during her life-saving treatment.

The Leukaemia Foundation's Blood Cancer Centres

The Leukaemia Foundation has accommodation options at our Blood Cancer Centres in QLD, NSW, ACT, VIC, SA and WA. While we predominantly support people living with blood cancer, our accommodation support is open to people with any kind of cancer.

If you have any questions, you can visit leukaemia.org.au, call us on 1800 620 420 or email accommodation@leukaemia.org.au

Scan the QR code
to find out more

Leukaemia Foundation®